SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY BOARD-OF REGENTS' APPROVED MISSION

Southeast Missouri State University provides student-centered education and experiential learning with a foundation of liberal arts and sciences, embracing a tradition of access, exceptional teaching, and commitment to student success that significantly contributes to the development of the region and beyond.

PROPOSED CBHE-APPROVED MISSION DESCRIPTION

Southeast Missouri State University is a comprehensive public regional university located in Cape Girardeau, Missouri with a statewide mission in visual and performing arts, computer sciences, and cybersecurity. Southeast Missouri State University is designated a moderately-selective institution

Southeast Missouri State University offers baccalaureate degree and master's degree programs through its five colleges – the Holland College of Arts and Media; the Harrison College of Business and Computing; the College of Education, Health, and Human Studies; the College of Humanities and Social Sciences; and the College of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics. These programs include baccalaureate degrees in the visual and performing arts, the humanities, natural sciences and social sciences, as well as in the applied fields of computer science and cybersecurity, unmanned aircraft systems, agriculture, communications, education, industrial technology and engineering, allied health, nursing, and business, as well as master's degrees in diverse fields. Southeast Missouri State University's undergraduate program has particular strengths in the visual and performing arts, computer science, cybersecurity, education, business, industrial technology and nursing. Its graduate program is particularly strong in education, engineering technology, health professions, and business. Southeast also assists in the delivery of doctoral level education through participation in the statewide EdD cooperative doctorate program. Southeast Missouri State University's River Campus is the only campus in Missouri exclusively dedicated to art, dance, music and theatre. It is the only institution in Missouri accredited in art, dance, music, theatre and cybersecurity.

Southeast Missouri State University also fulfills its mission by offering services to promote and sustain economic development, small business development, and workforce development, in addition to a broad range of academic, athletic, and cultural activities and events.

Consistent with the provisions of 173.030(8) RSMo, Southeast Missouri State University every five years will provide to the Coordinating Board evidence of fulfilling its CBHE-approved mission.
