ST. LOUIS COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES'-APPROVED MISSION

St. Louis Community College expands minds and changes lives every day by offering high-quality educational experiences leading to degrees, certificates, employment, university transfer, and life-long learning

PROPOSED CBHE-APPROVED MISSION DESCRIPTION

St. Louis Community College is a community college located in St. Louis, Missouri. It is responsible for serving the residents of its taxing district and its service region.

St. Louis Community College serves its service region by offering academic programs leading to the Associate in Arts, the Associate in Science, the Associate of Arts in Teaching, and the Associate in Fine Arts degrees, which transfer to four-year institutions, and postsecondary instruction in the liberal arts and sciences, and general education (including dual credit) that prepares students for transfer to four-year institutions. St. Louis Community College also offers programs in career and technical education, leading to certificates and the Associate of Applied Science degree, and provides basic and workplace skills training for career preparation and advancement as well as workforce skills training and customized training for businesses. St. Louis Community College has particular strengths in health sciences, visual arts, computer sciences, and culinary arts.

St. Louis Community College further fulfills its CBHE-approved mission by offering services in its region to promote and sustain economic development, small business development, and workforce development, in addition to a broad range of academic and cultural activities and events, and the shared use of facilities (libraries, theatres, galleries, etc.) and other types of institutional assets not available elsewhere in the region.

Consistent with the provisions of 173.030(8) RSMo, St. Louis Community College every five years will provide to the Coordinating Board evidence of fulfilling its CBHE-approved mission.
