

STATE FAIR COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES'-APPROVED MISSION

State Fair Community College provides relevant and innovative learning experiences that successfully prepare students for college transfer, career development and lifelong learning. SFCC is committed to being accessible and affordable; values collaborative partnerships; and strengthens and enriches the intellectual, economic and cultural vitality of the communities it serves.

PROPOSED CBHE-APPROVED MISSION DESCRIPTION

State Fair Community College is a community college located in Sedalia, Missouri. It is responsible for serving the residents of its taxing district and its service region.

State Fair Community College serves its service region by offering academic programs leading to the Associate of Arts, the Associate of Fine Arts, the Associate of Arts in Teaching, and the Associate of Science degrees, which transfer to four-year institutions, and postsecondary instruction in the liberal arts and sciences, and general education (including dual credit) that prepares students for transfer to four-year institutions. State Fair Community College also offers programs in career and technical education, leading to certificates and the Associate of Applied Science degree, and provides basic and workplace skills training for career preparation and advancement as well workforce skills training and customized training for businesses. The college's largest program is the Associate of Arts. It also has particular strengths in nursing and other allied health fields, business administration, and education. State Fair Community College is also home to the internationally renowned Daum Museum of Contemporary American Art, which anchors a strong Fine and Performing Arts focus.

State Fair Community College further fulfills its CBHE-approved mission by offering services in its region to promote and sustain economic development, small business development, and workforce development, in addition to a broad range of academic and cultural activities and events, and the shared use of facilities (libraries, theatres, galleries, etc.) and other types of institutional assets not available elsewhere in the region.

Consistent with the provisions of 173.030(8) RSMo, State Fair Community College every five years will provide to the Coordinating Board evidence of fulfilling its CBHE-approved mission.
